** NEW YORK FINALS April 13 – 20, 2018

WORLD CUP OF BALLET

Over 100,000 dancers from 36 countries compete in YAGP “regional semi-final” venues all over the world in order to earn the privilege of representing their school and country in the NYC finals each year in late April/early May.

YAGP judges are comprised of active and retired dancers, ballet masters, choreographers and other notoriety from the international community. For the 2018 season, YAGP credited 62 dance professionals as judges and offered regional semi-finals in 35 locations throughout the world, from Sao Paulo in September 2017 through Indianapolis in March 2018. The world map above might give you an appreciation for the massive winnowing process that defines the week-long New York finals.
